

FREE NORTH AMERICAN POLITICAL PRISONER MARILYN BUCK

FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS!
ANARCHIST BLACK CROSS FEDERATION

MARILYN BUCK is an Anti-Imperialist Political Prisoner. She is imprisoned for her anti-imperialist actions carried out in support of national liberation, women's liberation, social and economic justice.

In the 60's Marilyn participated in protests against racism and the Vietnam War. In 1967 she joined Students for a Democratic Society. Marilyn became part of a radical filmmaking and propaganda collective, showing the films at community meetings, high school groups, workers' committees and in the streets. She also participated in solidarity groups supporting the Vietnamese, Palestinians, and Native American, Mexicano and Black liberation struggles.

As a direct result of this activity, she became a target of COINTELPRO. In 1973, she was convicted of buying two boxes of bullets. Accused of being a member of the Black Liberation Army, she was sentenced to 10 years, the longest sentence ever given for such an offense at the time. In 1977 she was granted a furlough and never returned, joining the revolutionary clandestine movement. In 1985 she was captured and charged with conspiracy to free Political Prisoners and support the New Afrikan Independence struggle through expropriations. In 1988 she was indicted for conspiracy to protest and alter government policies through use of violence against government and military buildings and received an additional 10 years for conspiracy to bomb the Capitol. She is serving a total of 80 years.

Since September 11, we have witnessed the increasing criminalization of dissent, although this tendency was in evidence many years ago. As a result, there are almost 100 Political Prisoners and Prisoners of War (PP/POWs) in North America. In light of this current climate of repression, it is even more imperative than ever that we continue to struggle against this systematic injustice.

PP/POWs are those persons who have been sent to prison for their conscious revolutionary political activities on the streets. Though all prisoners righteously struggling against the repressive prison system should be supported, PP/POW's deserve the priority support of the revolutionary movement that they have sacrificed their freedom to build. As anarchist POW Ojore Lutalo has stated, "Any political movement that does not support its political internees is a sham movement!"
